

Vision, Mission & Core Values

VISION

To be a leading and vibrant interdisciplinary practical educational resource centre and demonstration facility dedicated to developing and disseminating quality and sustainable agricultural production

MISSION

The mission of Field Station is to support the agricultural research, teaching, and public services of University of Nairobi, CAVS in an efficient and effective manner while generating income and maximizing use of available resources

CORE VALUES

The Farm aspires individually and collectively to nurture the following core values:

- Professionalism: Endeavour to perform our duties with the highest level of competence and relevant skills
- Integrity: Acting at all times with Honesty, Accountability and Transparency,
- Teamwork: Embracing Teamwork in all our operations.
- Environmental Concerns: Respect for and protection of the environment. Promote clean and safe Environment
- Creativity and innovation: Responsive to the changing business Environment, and maintaining high Standards through Continual Improvement of Service Delivery.
- Effective and efficient utilization of all resources entrusted to the Farm.

Source URL: <http://fieldstation.uonbi.ac.ke/node/834>